

Dear Friend & Supporter:

The last month has been a whirlwind of activity as the campaign gains support and momentum at an astonishing pace. I want to take this opportunity both to thank you for your friendship and support, and to bring you up to date on how things are progressing. We have been working very hard and getting a great response from the community. The last ten days have been typical of the pace we are keeping up and the support we are earning. (If you cannot see the pictures below, click here.)

This past weekend I proudly accepted the endorsement of an array of South Asian leaders from virtually every South Asian institution and organization in the district. Click here for the press release and a short video excerpt.

The weekend before last, I attended the Black, Puerto Rican, Hispanic & Asian Legislative Caucus weekend conference in Albany as Chair of the NYS Trial Lawyers Association Legislative Committee, where I participated as a panelist in a seminar on workers' rights chaired by State Senator Kevin Parker.

On President's Day I spoke at an event sponsored by the Dhaka University Alumni Association to commemorate the recognition of Bengali as the mother tongue of Bangladesh, at the invitation of local Bangladeshi leaders, including my fellow District Leader Mohammad Aminullah and my fellow Community Board 8 member Dilafroz Ahmed.

Also on President's Day I spoke at the annual dinner of Kehillat Sefardim of Ahavit Achim, a Bukharian synagogue in the district, at the invitation of my friend and supporter Rabbi Shlomo Nisanov.

On Wednesday of that week I hosted a meeting of eight community leaders in my house for coffee and cookies, where we discussed issues concerning parochial schools, put together by my friend and supporter Charlie Zaragosa.

Also on Wednesday I spoke at the membership meeting of Ohr Moshe, a synagogue in the district, at the invitation of my friend and supporter Rabbi Asher Schecter.

Finally, Last Saturday evening, I spoke at the annual dinner of the Torah Center of Hillcrest, a synagogue in the district, at the invitation of my friend and supporter Rabbi Moshe Faskowitz.

I have left out half a dozen one-on-one meetings with local civic and religious leaders and elected officials (stay tuned for more endorsement announcements).

As I said, we are working very, very hard, and my twenty years of community service is making the difference as I build support and momentum. Thank you for all your help and encouragement, and I will keep you updated as the campaign continues to move forward.
