

SEIU Local 74 Endorses Rory Lancman for the 25th Assembly District (pdf)

"I am excited to receive the support of SEIU Local 74, headquartered in Queens, because of its long history of social action and community involvement," stated Rory Lancman, pictured here with Local 74 President Sal Alladeen.

"SEIU Local 74's 14,000 members work in diverse industries," Lancman added, "but acting collectively through their union they are leaders in the drive to improve access to health care, to increase opportunities for new Americans to participate in the political process, and to increase the availability of good paying union jobs. I share these goals and values, and I am grateful for SEIU Local 74's support."
